

IPSWICH, Jan. 24

Major W. H. Bunbury, from the 35th regt. is appointed Lieutenant Colonel of the 3d foot.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday next the Shropshire regiment of Militia will march from this town for Dover Castle.

Yesterday se'nnight the Marchioness Cornwallis was safely delivered of a 5th daughter.

Last week was married at Thurston, Mr. Wm. Skutcher, of Monk's Eleigh, malster, to Miss Elizabeth Elden, of Woolpit.

Tuesday se'nnight was married, Mr. Triggs, of Bosted Mill, Essex, to Miss Cook,

Tuesday last was married, by the Right Hon. and Rev. Lord Charles Aynsley, John Scott, Esq. of Norwich, to Elizabeth, only daughter of Joseph Savill, Esq. of Bocking, Essex.

Same day was married, at St. John's Church, Southwark, Mr. Charles Browne, master mariner, to Mrs. Thompson, both of this town.

Thursday was married at Woodbridge, Mr. James Wild, to Mrs. Stanton, widow.

Same day was married Mr. John Lankester, brandy merchant, to Miss Lankester, daughter of Mr. Robert Lankester.

Lately died, much respected, at Lisbon, where he went for the recovery of his health, Mr. James Warren, bookseller and printer, of Margate, and formerly of Bury.

On the 10th inst. died at Chelsea, after a lingering illness, William Ranson, Esq. late of the Old Jewry, London.

Yesterday se'nnight died, aged 65, Mr. Steph. Oliver, one of the Aldermen of Sudbury.

Same day died, aged 50, Mr. Cullam, of the White Hart and Punch Bowl, in this town.

Saturday last died at Earsham, in Norfolk, universally regretted, Mrs. Spilling, relict of the late Mr. Spilling, aged 21 years.

Sunday last died at Kentwell-hall, in this county (after a very short illness), aged 14 months, Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Richard Moore, Esq.

Monday last died at his house in Doughty-street, near the Foundling Hospital, London, after a long affliction from gout, Mr. Thomas